CLUB INFORMATION

- The Ventura County Fusion is an American soccer club based in Ventura, California that was founded in 2006. In 2007, the Fusion became the first soccer franchise from the Ventura County area of Southern California to enter the Premier Development League (PDL).
- The Fusion senior team plays in the Southwest Division of the Western Conference of the United Soccer Leagues' (USL) PDL. The PDL is primarily designed to develop players between the ages of 17 and 23 for careers in professional soccer, and is made up of 64 teams from across North America.
- The Fusion is one of the only franchises around the country to truly incorporate all levels of the game. The Fusion fields a men's USL PDL team, a youth club academy, and various community soccer programs for players at all levels and needs, including soccer schools, soccer camps, youth soccer league, and free soccer clinics for over 25,000 kids.

- The Fusion Youth Club Academy hosts three annual youth soccer tournaments: the Fusion Spring Classic in March, the Fusion Clasico in June and the Fusion Invitational in August. The tournaments are sold out with approximately 125 teams competing in each event. In 2014 & 2015, Fusion teamed up with Bimbo Bakeries to host the Bimbo B-Active Cup, a nationally-recognized youth tournament.
- The Fusion Youth Soccer Academy regularly fields about 20 competitive teams with approximately 400 players between the ages of 8 and 19. The Academy has a director of coaching and fully qualified professional coaches overseeing the entire program.

ACHIEVEMENTS & AWARDS

- In 2009, the Fusion defeated the Chicago Fire PDL team (2-1) to win the USL PDL National Championship.
- The Fusion has been dominant in the Southwest Division in recent years, claiming the regular season division title in three of the past five seasons. The Fusion won 7 of its final 8 games in 2014 to win the league title by a single point, adding the 2014 division title to wins in 2010 & 2012.
- In each of the last four years of the US Open Cup, the Fusion has won at least one match, a record for a USL PDL club. Fusion reached the 3rd Round in 2012, losing ultimately to Chivas 1-0 at Ventura College.
- The Fusion captured a historic win in July 2014, defeating Rangers F.C. (Glasgow, Scotland) 3-1 in a friendly match at Ventura College.
- The 2009 National Championship game was played in Ventura, California, to a sell-out crowd and broadcasted nationwide on Fox Soccer Channel. The Fusion was the first-ever Ventura County sports franchise to be nationally telecast.
- En route to the 2009 title, the Fusion won the 2009 USL PDL Western Conference Championship. This included victories over the Los Angeles Legends and Hollywood United Hitmen.
- The Fusion reached the 2009 USL PDL Final with victories over the Kitsap Pumas and the Bradenton Academics in Laredo, Texas.
- In 2010, the Fusion made franchise history by finishing the regular season with the best record and winning the USL PDL Southwest Division title.

- The following year, 2011, the Fusion completed the regular season undefeated, finishing the year with a 10-0-6 record.
- In 2012, the Fusion once again had a stellar regular season, winning the USL PDL Southwest Division title for a second time.
- In 2013, Fusion hosted two full national teams, Canada & New Zealand, and drew both sides 1-1.
- The same year, the Fusion again reached the USL PDL playoffs, and in doing so, qualified for the for the US Open Cup for a fifth consecutive year.
- Throughout the course of the season, the average Fusion home game attendance is approximately 1,200 fans. With the recent growth that the franchise has seen, it is expected to see this number rise for next season.
- In 2015, Fusion defeated Los Angeles Galaxy II in the 2nd round of the US Open Cup.
- In 2015, Fusion claimed the inaugural Ventura County Cup with a 2-1 win over FC Hasental.
- In 2015, Fusion drew the U-17 Mexico Men's National Team, 2-2, before a sold out crowd at Ventura College.
- The Ventura County Fusion franchise was awarded the 2008 USL PDL Communications Award.

MEDIA COVERAGE

- Local, national, and international media have frequently featured articles about the franchise's accomplishments throughout the years, with the franchise providing weekly press releases and media updates about the PDL team during the season.
- ESPN, Fox Sports, and the UK's Daily Mail are just a few of the relevant media outlets that have covered Fusion during the franchise's eight years of existence.
